5. All State Democratic Executive Committee members who are registered voters in Mobile County shall also be members of the Mobile County Democratic Executive Committee.

6. It is the policy of the Committee that minority members shall be represented on the Committee at least in proportion to their presence into the Democratic Electorate of Mobile County or in proportion to their presence in the population of Mobile County, whichever is greater. Each of the popularly elected members of the Committee shall have citizenship as well as residency as a voter in the district from which he/she is chosen to serve. Should one lose his/her citizenship or change voting residency by permanently moving from said district or otherwise, the same shall constitute a vacancy on the Committee. A vacancy in membership for any reason shall be filled for the unexpired term by the Committee at the next meeting following the occurrence of such vacancy, except that a vacancy in any position held by a minority member shall be nominated by the minority member at the next meeting of the Committee.

C). Residence Requirements
